RECTOR FOUNDRev. Jere K. Cooke Who
Eloped With Girl

HID IN SAN FRANCISCO

He Has Been Laboring as a Painter and Donor to Support the Girl and Their Little Child—His Story of It.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 30.—Hunted for eight months, the Rev. Jere K. Cooke, former pastor of the fashionable St. George's church of Hingham, N. Y., who eloped with a 17-year-old girl, Flora Winslow, has been located with the young girl at a flat in this city. They have been living quietly in Los Angeles and San Francisco, where Cooke supported the girl by working as a painter and decorator, and at times doing the hardest kind of manual labor. A child has been born to them. The couple has stood by each other through the worst hardships.

Cooke, who now awaits a warrant taking him back to Hingham to answer the charge of eloping with the girl, says that all he wants is the chance to live in peace and support her and their child. He says that the nine years of his life with the wife he deserted were years of hell.

FOUND HUMAN BODY
IN DRUCE GRAVEThere Seems to Be Little Doubt That It
Is the Remains of Thomas Charles
Druce—Pettitioner's Case Shaken.

London, Dec. 30.—Thomas Charles Druce's coffin contains human remains. It was opened at Highgate cemetery today and inside was found the body of an aged bearded man. No doubt the corpse is that of Druce himself. This shakes the case of George H. Druce, who claims the title and estate of the duke of Devonshire on the ground that the duke and Druce were the same man, and proven under the story of Robert Caldwell, the New Yorker, who swore that he engineered a bogus funeral for Druce and buried 200 pounds of lead in his coffin. The opening of the coffin today was awaited with breathless interest all over the kingdom, as it was believed that its revelation would settle the famous controversy.

TRAGEDY WAS AT SUTTON

Edward Butterfield Shot Aged Mother-in-law Saturday Night and When Police Closed in on Him, He Committed Suicide.

Sutton, Dec. 30.—Andrew E. Butterfield, who said he was sane and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lydia A. Durkee, attempted to kill his wife and children at bay through the night from his barricaded house, ended his own life early yesterday by blowing the top of his head off with a rifle.

Butterfield killed himself just as Sheriff G. F. Finch, State's Attorney Guy W. Hill and four deputy sheriffs were about to force their way into the house, despite his threats that he would shoot the first one that came within range of his rifle.

While they were preparing for the attack the officers heard two shots. When they broke down the door they found Mrs. Durkee dead in the chair where she was shot Saturday night, while in another room, lying on a bed, was Butterfield, rifle in hand, with a wound in his head.

The house was a regular arsenal, and showed that Butterfield was prepared for a long resistance. There were rifles, shotguns, revolvers and knives and a great amount of ammunition. He had converted the house into a miniature fort. Every door was barricaded, as were all the windows on the first floor.

The Butterfield home is located near Willoughby lake, one of the wildest sections of mountain country in this section of the state, although in the summer time it is a favorite resort for fishermen and hampers parties.

According to the members of Butterfield's family, he had been drinking heavily since Christmas. Saturday night, without an instant's warning, he walked into the room where the family, consisting of his mother-in-law, his wife, little daughter and three sons, was asleep, and shot Mrs. Durkee.

Butterfield then tried to kill his wife, but was overpowered by his sons, his wife and daughter fleeing in the meantime. The sons also ran to the home of George F. Finch, the nearest neighbor, and gave the alarm.

While they were gone, Butterfield barricaded the house and collected his weapons. Deputy Sheriffs E. B. Smith and N. J. Washburn of West Burke and H. D. Chapman of Sutton were the first to arrive at the house. They were warned by Butterfield to keep away. They stood on guard about the house throughout the night, and early yesterday they were joined by Sheriff Finch, State's Attorney Hill and Deputy E. F. Harriman.

When reinforcements arrived, Butterfield was again ordered to surrender. He refused and repeated his threats to shoot.

About 8 o'clock Sheriff Finch ordered the posse to advance to the house, the sheriff leading the way. He was followed by Col. Riker, Mr. Calkins and the deputies.

As Mr. Finch broke in the door, Col. Riker saw the dead man in bed, and the anxiety of the deputies was over. Butterfield had shot himself twice, the first bullet entering just below the left temple, and the other passing through the same temple.

Butterfield would have been 60 years old in February, and Mrs. Durkee was 60 years old. The family will be cared for by the present at Mr. Wheeler's house.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY
IN WAKEFIELD, MASS.Entraged Lover Shot Girl and Then Tried to Blow His Own Brains Out
—Didn't Succeed.

Wakefield, Mass., Dec. 30.—Entraged because his love was not returned, and jealous at the sight of the girl he desired, walking with another, F. A. Sullivan aged 25, last night knocked down two young men and a woman who were with Mary E. McFallen, aged 18, seized her roughly around the waist, shot her twice through the left shoulder and twice through the stomach, then, turning the revolver on himself, the young man put a bullet through the back of his head and raised the scalp at the top of his head with another.

The girl was hurried to a hospital in Boston, where it is said she cannot survive. Sullivan, after the shooting, walked down the railroad tracks, wandered around in the swamp for a time, and finally came back to the village and gave himself up to the police. He was covered with blood, but his condition is not considered as dangerous.

Last August he met her on the street and struck her. It is claimed, Miss McFallen's brother, Andrew J. McFallen, went to Sullivan's home and called him to account, and as he was leaving was shot in the leg by Sullivan. Sullivan was arrested and allowed to go on payment of a fine of $50.

and Buried in Casket.

Miles of Randolph, nephew of the late Mrs. Esther Dunham of Salem, Mass., has filed an appeal from the will, in which she left her property, of $4,000, to the New Hampshire society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. In her will Mrs. Dunham requested that her pet hen should be put to death after the writer's demise and be buried in a casket.

FUNERAL OF SUICIDE
HELD AT RANDOLPHEugene Osha Buried This Afternoon—It
Is Thought That He Fired the Fatal Shot in a Period of Mental Aberration.

Randolph, Dec. 30.—The funeral of the late Eugene Osha, whose tragic suicide occurred on the morning of Friday, was held at Bethany church, at one o'clock this afternoon, the Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating. The hearse was carried by the members of the church, and the casket was placed in the cemetery, beside his first wife and two children by the same wife.

Eugene A. Osha was one of eight sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Osha, born in Roxbury 29 years ago. He attended school at Roxbury, where his childhood was passed, and where his parents now reside. Later when he went into business for himself, he conducted a barber shop in Bethel, but after a time left there and eight years ago went to Waltham, Mass. He was twice married, his first wife having been Agnes Duett of Nova Scotia, who died only three months later he married Lucia, daughter of Paul Wagner of Waltham, and five children have been born to them, two of whom died early, and two daughters and one son, who are now living and were in the home at Waltham with the mother when he left them between 11 and 12 on Friday morning last.

Not returning, as was his habit, at 5 o'clock, the wife became alarmed and early in the morning caused search to be made for him, when the telegram announcing his death was received. It was supposed that he went directly to A. F. Lamb, where he took the afternoon train. He made careful and deliberate arrangements and explicit directions were left on a card, addressed to "the finder," together with a sealed letter addressed to the wife at Waltham, which he had left only a few hours before, an insurance policy of $1,000 and other papers, which were found by the authorities in his pocket. He was recovered by Charles L. Hillard, a farmer just south of the village at eight o'clock, who reported at once to the officers, who with the board of health held consultation, and he was taken to the undertaker's rooms of A. F. Lamb, where he remained till Monday.

Some two years since he sustained an accident by an electric car, causing injury to the spine, and since that time he has suffered at intervals from depression and melancholy, and at these times has previously threatened to end his life, but after a time this would pass away, and he would appear himself again. This was no doubt the cause of this act.
